

broadcast ownership should continue to be limited. these huge conglomerates have no equity in the region they serve. most everything will be done to produce the greatest profit at the expense of the residents of an area.